The Ocean of Dreams

In the ocean of dreams, I beheld a crowd of technicoloured fish, steadily swimming towards the nominal dreams and the lonely fisherman cautiously fishing for fish.

In the ocean of dreams, I dreamt of a damp delicious salmon dancing outside of its underwater home, a big headed whale fighting fiercely for its food and a small headed sardine quickly swimming for its life.

a pleasant crab opening and closing its claws, a fearless shark fiercely fighting for its home and a talented shrimp singing and dancing in a sea concert.

The Dome of Dreams

In the Dome of Dreams, I dreamt of a damp, delicious donut dancing inside of its box, a big headed butterfly fighting a fierce fox and a chirpy cheetah running as slow as a stuck up snail.

an artistic anteater singing a sweet song, a sad, solitude sugarplum miserably limping along and a peculiar piece of pasta pecking at a mysterious and majestic mermaid.

the bright bum of a minute mouse, ten, terrified toads staring at a determined demon, and his fifteen favourite friends, and a spirit slowly exterminating sorrowful souls, like a chicken getting stripped.
